

Where Girls Go To Get Laid

This time I want to talk about a great opportunity to meet a large number of hot girls. I think it's one of the easiest places to pick up women — and by developing a little bit of skill, you'll have basically no competition.

Where Girls Go To Get Laid

This time I want to talk about a great opportunity to meet a large number of hot girls. I think it's one of the easiest places to pick up women — and by developing a little bit of skill, you'll have basically no competition.

Most guys go to clubs only to find rejection from the girls and a lot of competition from the other men. But have you ever considered of visiting one of your local dancing schools?

I know, I know... Now you'll come up with the typical excuse: You're not a “very good” dancer. But use your head! If everyone were a good dancer, such schools wouldn't exist! There are also a number of dances to choose from: I'm sure you can find one that you'll like.

Just take my example: To be honest, I was never a good dancer. I've never done any competitive sports, and when I was younger, I wasn't the greatest in gymnastics. But still, I decided to go for it and tried salsa dancing. And man, what I found! A great number of beautiful, single women eager for my attention!

Apart

from dance classes, most of the dance schools organize their own parties. Meeting girls at these parties is a piece of cake: You don't need to know lame pickup lines or fancy ways of approaching women. All you need to do is ask her for a dance, and the rest will flow naturally.

After

dancing, just grab her hand and ask if she wants to talk. If you know how to dance just a bit, she will already be attracted to you and ready to go further. Believe me, guys who know how to move are VERY ATTRACTIVE to women! Since there are also many girls who are interested and don't even know how to dance, you can go far with only basic skills. The basics are easy to acquire by taking dancing lessons for three or four months.

And

the party isn't over yet. Most of these girls are not only single, but also very intelligent and know how to move their bodies. Re: They are damn good in bed! If you're interested, I suggest you do a search on the Internet for local dance schools. Visit a few of them — then choose which is the best for you. I recommend you check out either salsa or standard Latin dance schools.

Discover everything you need to know about picking up women.